

News Sources and Media/Political Watchdogs

print and/or online

Page 1: Local Information from Carol Newman

KMUN = 91.9fm (or 89.5fm Tillamook)

KCPB = 90.9fm available on www.coastradio.org

KMUN on the Tune In app on hand held devices. 503-325-0010

"Similar to my sources, the Falcons, I don't endorse all of the below."

Radio/Podcasts/TV

Jim Hightower — 2 minute pithy progressive commentary: KMUN: M & F
~11am www.jimhightower.com

Alternative Radio — Investigative journalist David Barsamian presents a Boulder, Colorado-based nationally syndicated weekly public affairs program providing information, analyses and views from progressive thinkers. KMUN: Thurs 3-4pm www.alternativeradio.org

Counterspin — provides a critical examination of the major news stories every week, and exposes what the mainstream media might have missed in their own coverage. KMUN: Friday 9am www.fair.org/counterspin

Democracy Now – Daily independent news program, hosted by Amy Goodman and Juan Gonzalez. Airs Mon-Thurs 4-5pm on KMUN and Mon-Friday 10-11pm on KCPB.
www.democracynow.org

Le Show — Harry Shearer political satire with insight and more. KMUN: Monday 3pm KCPB: Sunday 10pm <http://harryshearer.com/le-show/>

Left, Right & Center — Weekly one hour program providing "A civilized yet provocative antidote to the screaming talking heads of political debate"
KMUN: Friday 4 – 5 pm <http://www.kcrw.com/news-culture/shows/left-right-center>

News Sources and Media/Political Watchdogs

print and/or online

FROM SEATTLE SOURCE:

We've done our best to pull together and organize a wide range of generally progressive resources, so that we are not just relying on mainstream media for our information. Inclusion in this list does not necessarily imply endorsement. We've included a few reputable conservative sites as well, since we believe it is helpful to understand their positions. We welcome your comments and suggestions, but don't know how frequently we will be able to update this list.

Ruth Neuwald Falcon & Rabbi Ted Falcon

Blogs, magazines, news sites

AlterNet – Political and cultural E-zine with original journalism, commentary, weblogs and videos. Publishes their own pieces and links to those from other sources.

AMERICAblog – A journal of news and opinion about US politics, both domestic and foreign, from a progressive point of view.

The Atlantic – Print edition of the magazine publishes ten issues a year. All articles available on the website. Has only endorsed a candidate for president three times since its founding in 1857: Abraham Lincoln, Lyndon Johnson, and Hillary Clinton.

Common Dreams – News, analysis and links to progressive organizations and information.

CounterPunch – A left-wing bi-monthly magazine published in the United States that covers politics in a manner its editors describe as "muckraking with a radical attitude."

Daily Kos – Daily weblog with political analysis on U.S. current events from a liberal perspective.

Huffington Post – News, blogs and original content.

The Intercept – An online magazine, which serves as a platform to report on the documents released by Edward Snowden, and "to produce aggressive, adversarial journalism across a wide range of issues" in the long term.

In These Times – An independent, nonprofit politically progressive monthly magazine "dedicated to advancing democracy and economic justice, informing movements for a more humane world, and providing an accessible forum for debate about the policies that shape our future."

Mother Jones – An independent news organization, featuring investigative and breaking news reporting.

Movers & Company – Essays and videos by managing editor Bill Moyers, as well as the perspectives of other journalists, scholars, activists and others.

News Sources and Media/Political Watchdogs

print and/or online

Nation of Change – A nonprofit news and activism organization with a mission to enact progressive change through positive action.

The Nation – Weekly journal of opinion, featuring political and cultural analysis.

The New Republic – A media organization “dedicated to addressing today’s most critical issues.”

The New Yorker – A magazine of reportage, commentary, criticism, essays, fiction, satire, cartoons, and poetry.

Politico – Political news about campaigns, Congress, lobbyists and issues.

PoliticusUSA – “Fiercely corporate free” news and analysis.

ProPublica – An independent, non-profit newsroom that produces investigative journalism in the public interest.

Salon.com – In-depth news, politics, technology and culture.

Sojourners Magazine – A progressive monthly publication of the Christian social justice organization Sojourners.

Tablet – An American Jewish general interest online magazine sponsored by Nextbook.

Talking Points Memo – Politically left commentary on political events.

Tikkun – A quarterly interfaith Jewish left-progressive magazine. The name comes from the Hebrew word that means, to heal, repair and transform the world.

Truthdig – Progressive news site.

Truthout – A non-profit news organization with a web site and a daily newsletter.

Utne Reader – A quarterly magazine that reprints articles on politics, culture and the environment, generally from alternative media sources.

Yes! Magazine – Concerned with building a more just, sustainable, and compassionate future with articles about economic alternatives and peace options.

Vox.com – General interest news site.

Washington Monthly – Center-left non-profit bi-monthly magazine.

News Sources and Media/Political Watchdogs

print and/or online

Newspapers

Christian Science Monitor – An international news organization that delivers global coverage.

The Forward – Print and online independent newspaper focusing on coverage of the issues, ideas and institutions that matter to American Jews.

The Guardian – A British newspaper with an online U.S. version. Profits are reinvested in journalism. “The world’s leading liberal voice.”

The New York Times – An American daily newspaper.

Washington Post – Breaking news and analysis.

Radio/Podcasts/TV

Free Speech TV – A national, independent news network committed to advancing progressive social change. Carries Democracy Now and Thom Hartmann, among others, via their live stream or archived material.

Mic.com – A media company that targets millennials with news, opinion, reviews and analysis.

On the Media – WNYC's weekly investigation into how the media shapes our worldview. Aired in Seattle at 6 PM on Sundays on KUOW.

The Real News Network – A daily video news and documentary service based in Baltimore, MD and Toronto, Canada.

The Thom Hartmann Program – Monday through Friday progressive talk radio syndicated by Pacifica. Live in Seattle on KBCS-FM from 9 AM to noon, or download the KBCS app onto your device. Prior to his run for the presidency, Bernie Sanders appeared weekly on the show ("Brunch with Bernie") for fifteen years.

News Sources and Media/Political Watchdogs

print and/or online

Watchdog and Advocacy Groups

FactCheck.org – A non-partisan non-profit site that “aims to reduce the level of deception and confusion in U.S. politics.” A project of the Annenberg Public Policy Center of the University of Pennsylvania.

Faith in Public Life – A strategy center for the faith community advancing faith in the public square as a powerful force for justice, compassion and the common good.

FreePress – An advocacy group whose mission statement says, “We fight to save the free and open Internet, curb runaway media consolidation, protect press freedom, and ensure diverse voices are represented in our media.”

Media Bias/Fact Check – An independent online media outlet, “dedicated to educating the public on media bias and deceptive news practices.”

Media Matters for America – A politically progressive media watchdog, with a stated mission of “comprehensively monitoring, analyzing, and correcting conservative misinformation in the U.S. media.”

Naked Capitalism – An American financial news and analysis blog that “chronicles the large scale, concerted campaign to reduce the bargaining power and pay of ordinary workers relative to investors and elite technocrats.”

Project Vote Smart – A non-partisan site that provides information on every current or prospective elected official.

Resilience – “A portal dedicated to raising awareness on the topic of peak oil production and actions that can be taken.”